

Accessibility Statement

The Grand Theater, Inc. is committed to ensuring digital accessibility for all visitors, including individuals with disabilities. We continually strive to improve the user experience for everyone by applying accessibility best practices and working toward compliance with applicable accessibility standards.

Our Commitment

We believe every guest should be able to access the information and services available on our website, www.tgtanaheim.com, regardless of ability or the technology they use.

Our goal is to provide an accessible online experience that allows all users to:

- Browse our venue information
- Learn about weddings, quinceañeras, corporate events, concerts, and theater performances
- Request pricing
- Schedule venue tours
- Contact our team
- Access important business information

Accessibility Features

We strive to make our website accessible by:

- Using clear headings and page structure
- Providing readable fonts and color contrast where possible
- Supporting keyboard navigation
- Designing pages to work across modern browsers and devices
- Regularly reviewing our website for accessibility improvements

While we work to improve accessibility, some portions of our website or third-party content may not yet fully conform to the latest accessibility standards.

Third-Party Content

Our website may include links to third-party websites or embedded content that is not controlled by The Grand Theater, Inc. We cannot guarantee the accessibility of third-party websites or services.

Need Assistance?

If you experience difficulty accessing any part of our website or need assistance obtaining information or services, we encourage you to contact us.

We will make every reasonable effort to provide the information or assistance you need in an accessible format.
